

We featured this great band in our Oriental Landscapes in 2011. The CD will be released by Lost Origin Productions.

This is a track from the first album, "Ancient Sufi Invocations and Forgotten Songs from Aleppo" in the Sacred Voices of Syria series out April 19, 2014 on Lost Origin Sound Series & Electric Cowbell Records. "Ancient Sufi Invocations and Forgotten Songs from Aleppo" was recorded by Jason Hamacher in Aleppo, one of the world's oldest cities, in October of 2010. The recording took place at night in the courtyard of a 500 year-old house. The songs are haunting, delicate and beautiful. After the recording, Hamacher asked what the songs meant and was told. "This is how we fight terrorism!"
